Dear Mr. McPhee:

Thank you for your generous gift of [REDACTED] to the CCSU Foundation, Inc. which has been applied to the Football Program. Your action speaks to your investment in the University's mission of excellence and accessibility. An official receipt, which may be retained for tax purposes, is enclosed.

Your support for Central Connecticut State University and its mission, coupled with concern for the students and recognition of the role they will play in the future, is commendable. You have made a difference in the life of the University, not only with your philanthropy but also with your commitment to enhancing Central's future.

I take great pride in counting you as a member of the Central Connecticut State University community, and I appreciate all you do. Thank you for helping Central students achieve their educational dreams.

Sincerely,
