Thank you for your contribution to the CCSU Foundation, Inc. in support of Central Connecticut State University. The University aspires to become one of the best public universities in the nation and the finest in New England. With your support, Central Connecticut can continue to serve as an accessible, responsive and creative intellectual resource for the people and institutions of Connecticut's Capital Region.

If you have any questions regarding your gift, please contact the University Development Office by phone: (860) 832-2586, by fax: (860) 832-2585.

Please retain this letter for federal income tax purposes as proof of your contribution to the CCSU Foundation, Inc. Since you received no benefit of value in exchange for this gift other than the satisfaction of knowing that you are supporting Central Connecticut State University's mission of quality and accessibility, the full amount of the contribution may be deductible under IRS guidelines. Please consult your tax advisor with any specific questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

Nicholas Pettinico, Jr.
Assistant Treasurer

The CCSU Foundation, Inc. was created in 1971, at the request of the University, to receive private contributions to support educational programs and research at Central Connecticut State University. Incorporated under the laws of the State of Connecticut, the non-profit, eleemosynary organization is governed by an 18-member, independent Board of Directors, which includes members of the faculty, the student body, the alumni, and the general public. The President of Central Connecticut State University is an ex-officio member of the Board of Directors. The Foundation is exempt from tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Foundation's FEIN is 23-7354328.
